

Troop 175 Event Report Base Camp Extreme

When: August 2005
Where: Lake Feely

Scouts

Tim P., Randy B., Jeremy H., Adam L., Dane H., Victor H., Sam W., Ryan S., Ryan O., Jordan G., Justin L., Chris E., Jason P., David L., Adults Brad H., Michael L., Russell L., Jeff G., Gene P., Amy P., Bobbie B.

Location

Lake Feely

Trip Summary

(Sun) The pack in was the hardest part of the whole trip (during this time Jordan found a balloon weight which he deemed the medallion of happiness). We hiked along a trail to get the gear to the point where it could be ferried across the lake on canoes. Then due to some technical difficulties with the canoe wheels (they broke) we were forced to make multiple trips).

(Mon) Monday we all woke up at around 7 and had a yummy breakfast after which we went swimming for a while and then gathered some firewood. That was basically our morning routine for the entire week. After swimming we hung out until dinner.

In the afternoon the younglings went on a day hike up to the ridge above the camp. The rest of us sat around and went swimming.

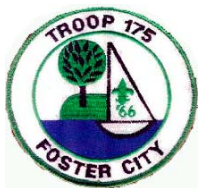

(TUES) We started gathering wood for the raft and the older boys went on a overnighter with Mr. Hedstrom.

(Wed) While scouting for raft wood the middle scouts were viciously attacked by the older boys. We retaliated by trying to flip their canoe but were unsuccessful. We got sufficiently squirted in our faces though. All but the older scouts went on a day hike to the ridge but couldn't get to the top. In the afternoon the older boys demonstrated what not to do in a canoe.

(Thurs) After lunch the middle and younger scouts left for the overnighter at Island lake. The hike went smoothly and we found a camp without difficulty. Dinner was fine not great, not bad.

(Fri) Dane, Sam, and Ryan O were using the raft when Jordan, Ryan S, and David paddled over in a canoe which was perceived as a threat by the raft who attacked and splashed the canoe like crazy. Randy eventually got bored and waded out and flipped the canoe (they all had their clothes on). The battle went on for another half an hour until Victor got hit accidentally with a paddle. Then we stopped. Afterwards Mr. Leonard got out a potato cannon and we all hurled potatoes into the lake and then went and dove for them. The steaks were awesome and the skits all went well!

(Sat) The pack out went very well and we were home before you could read through the entire dictionary.

Troop 175 Event Report Base Camp Extreme

When: august 2005
Where: Lake Feely

The Kitchen

The fire ring/eating area

Hooray Canoeing!

The "middle" scouts teach the younlings lashings.

Island Lake, the site for the overnight

The overnight

Troop 175 Event Report Base Camp Extreme

When: august 2005
Where: Lake Feely

Destination of the older scouts day
hike

Finding snow on the way there

The top of the mountain

Pimpin' Raft

Mr. Leonard's potato
cannon

STEAK!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!